Dearest Lotti

Well, no mail today, so I will have to write this letter from scratch. It rained all afternoon, and I did nothing but try to take a nap, read, write 2 letters, and played a few games of checkers with some of the boys. AThis morning I went up and talked to Capt. Duren, from Tuscaloosa, and toldhim about seeing Bert. Then we had to haul a few loads of coral sand in the company street and in the tents to fill up the mud holes. It is a lot better now.

This afternoon it rained all afternoon, andis still raining. I was going to the USO show, Helzapoppin, but the rained cancelled my plans. Maybe I'll get to see it yet. Tomorrow I start to another GI school for a little while. I don't know what it will be like, but imagine it will be just like the last school.

Got a nice letter from Emanual yesterday,and am answering it tonight.

Got a nice letter from Naomi this week. Know what she said? She asked me if I would be contented to settle down in a small uneventful town asI was living in before the war. Boy, was I burned up? I really told her about our "uneventful" town. Right? I will be satisfied with Tuscaloosa always. Right?

Don,t know what is the matter with the mail lately.I got a letter fromabout Feb. 16, 27th and then March 1st. Are you still writing everyday? I t don't look like it.

Just finished reading 3 "This Week's" fromthe Sunday B'ham News I received yesterday. Do you ever-read them? There are really some good stories in them, some of them true to life. One of the boys in the tent got a January Reader's Digest, so I will start on it tonight. But no late Omnibook??????

That is all for now, so be good, and write soon.

Love,

Harold
